

You are invited to the premiere of
One to One Development Trust's latest film

WITH BANNERS HELD HIGH

Wednesday 25 March at 7.30pm
Unity+Works, Westgate, Wakefield WF1 1EP

The film explores the resilience of Miners and Women Against Pit Closures through their sense of humour, camaraderie and community spirit in the 1984/85 Miners' Strike.

The film will be introduced by Director/Producer Judi Alston & Granville Williams of the Campaign for Press and Broadcasting Freedom

Compere: Writer & broadcaster Ian Clayton

Joe Rollin - Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign

Local playwright John Godber will talk about his new play 'Shafted'
Opens on April 13 at the Theatre Royal, Wakefield

Performances from A Firm of Poets
Helen Mort, Matt Abbott, Matthew Hedley Stoppard,
Victoria Garbutt and Ralph Dartford

The event is FREE but to reserve your seat go to www.unityworks.co.uk/events or telephone 01924 831114

The Unity Bar will be open

Donations will be collected for the Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign