

WITH BANNERS HELD HIGH

A DAY-LONG EVENT MARKING THE END OF AN INDUSTRY

© Martin Shakeshaft 1984

UNITY WORKS, WAKEFIELD — SATURDAY 5 MARCH 2016

MUSIC AND THE MINERS' STRIKE

INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY

MUSIC, DEBATES, POETRY & FILM

DIRECTIONS

Unity Works is a 2 minute walk from Wakefield's Westgate train station

BOOKING INFORMATION

Box Office at Unity Works, Westgate Wakefield WF1 1EP or go to:
www.unityworks.co.uk/event/with-banners-held-high-2016/

With Banners Held High

Email: wbhh@talktalk.net

DAY TIME EVENT

Doors open 10.30
 Programme runs 11.00 - 5.00pm
 Tickets £8 Concs £4

Welcome: Granville Williams, WBHH

Compere: Ian Clayton

President NUM: Nicky Wilson

OTJC: Barbara Jackson

Guest Speakers: Tony Garnett, producer Cathy Come Home, Kes, and The Price of Coal Tosh MacDonald, President ASLEF

Special session on International Solidarity with speakers from France, Denmark and the UK

Exhibitions: NEW Solidarity and the 1984-85 Miners' Strike

Music and the Miners' Strike

Political Musicians: Photos by Pete Dunwell

Pictures by Stefano Cagnoni, John Sturrock and Martin Jenkinson on International Solidarity and the Miners' Strike

Miners' Banners: Slide show and talk by David Wray and Dave Mitchell

Films: Test Department's DS30 – a stunning must-see film, With Banners Held High 2015, Sleaford Mods' Invisible Britain

Unity: A Coming Together a film of With Banners Held High 2015

Music: Root and Branch, Grace Petrie, Dave Rovics, We Shall Overcome buskers

Book Launch: Pit Props: Music, International Solidarity and the 1984-85 Miners' Strike, with Editor Granville Williams and former BBC Labour Reporter Nick Jones

Poetry and words: Jean Gittins, Chris Searle, Paul Routledge

Debates: Workers' solidarity with refugees and migrants today; From Orgreave to Wapping; The Psycho-Social Impact of the Miners' Strike; Energy Under Capitalism; New Ways of Organising; Music and the Miners' Strike

EVENING FUNDRAISER

FROM 7.30-11.00 TICKETS £20

THE FARM THE HURRIERS JOE SOLO

COMPERE:
ATTILA THE STOCKBROKER

Proceeds to: Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign, Justice for Mineworkers and The Oaks Memorial Campaign

Organised by

ORGREAVE
 TRUTH AND JUSTICE CAMPAIGN

CAMPAIGN FOR PRESS AND BROADCASTING FREEDOM

Supporters

