

WITH BANNERS HELD HIGH

the flame still burns

The pits are all closed but the impulse to celebrate the heritage and to record the impact of coal mining – whether with banners and memorials or in film, drama, painting, poetry and music – continues unabated. With Banners Held High 2017 celebrates the creative power and spirit of coal mining, past and present.

UNITY WORKS WAKEFIELD

SATURDAY 4 MARCH 2017

Unity+Works Wakefield WF1 1EP ☎ 01924 831114

Tickets for the day-time event £8.00
Conc £4.00 (doors open 10.30am.
Programme runs 11.00 am-5.00pm)

Book tickets at: [unityworks.co.uk/
event/banners-held-high-2017](http://unityworks.co.uk/event/banners-held-high-2017)

Funds raised from the day's events go to support causes including Justice for Mineworkers and the Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign.

ORGREAVE
TRUTH AND JUSTICE CAMPAIGN

Workshops and debates connect issues from the epic year-long miners' strike to the struggles we face today.

- Keynote speaker
Dennis Skinner MP
- Celebration of the life of Davey Hopper
- Plus a packed programme of exhibitions, music, poetry, debates and films
- Danny Mellor's stunning one-hander, Undermined

UNITY WORKS WAKEFIELD

SATURDAY 4 MARCH 2017

Unity+Works Wakefield WF1 1EP ☎ 01924 831114

FEROCIOUS DOG

supported by
Parson's Lot
& The Star
Botherers

FUNDRAISING BENEFIT All this evening's bands have close links with mining – all three lead singers are ex-miners

7.30-11.00pm (doors open 7.00pm). Tickets £12.50 from:
unityworks.co.uk/event/banners-held-high-2017-flame-still-burns/

Funds raised from the day's events go to support causes including Justice for Mineworkers and the Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign.

ORGREAVE
TRUTH AND JUSTICE CAMPAIGN

