

ORGREAVE INQUIRY HAS STARTED WITH A CALL FOR EVIDENCE

ORGREAVE

TRUTH AND JUSTICE CAMPAIGN

PLEASE CONTACT THE INQUIRY PANEL BY 22nd MAY 2026

In March 2026 the Government announced the launch of the long fought for Orgreave Inquiry. This is an independent statutory inquiry set up by the Government to understand more about the events at the Orgreave Coking Plant on 18th June 1984, associated with the prosecutions of those arrested on the day.

The Inquiry Panel need information and evidence from former miners, their families, witnesses, organisers, supporters and anyone else connected with the Miners' Strike who can help to provide information to the Orgreave Inquiry about what happened at Orgreave on 18th June 1984.

The Inquiry Panel deadline date for information is 22ND MAY 2026. The Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign (OTJC) has asked the Inquiry Panel to extend this deadline and help people to submit their information.

The Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign (OTJC) is encouraging you to contribute to this important inquiry.

If you need help putting your inquiry information together, please let the Inquiry Panel know by either emailing them or writing to them at the addresses in this leaflet as soon as possible and before 22nd May 2026.

Please tell the Inquiry Panel that you need help with any postage or printing costs involved in posting the information and for your information to be returned if you want it back. The Inquiry Panel currently say they cannot cover postage costs, but the OTJC have asked them to help with costs involved.

When sending anything to the Inquiry Panel address by post, we recommend asking the Post Office for a Certificate of Proof of Posting.

The Chair of the Orgreave Inquiry has said he intends to visit communities and individuals to talk directly with those of you whose lives have been affected by the events at Orgreave. Your experiences, insights, and documentation are vital to building a truthful account.

Please email or write to the Inquiry Panel as soon as possible if you, your family, or people connected with Orgreave and the miners' strike want to be part of these meetings.

This is an Orgreave Public Inquiry conducted by an Inquiry Panel set up by the Government. Please contact them directly on the emails or postal address with questions or information before 22nd May 2026

The Orgreave Truth and Justice Campaign cannot submit evidence on behalf of people. Anyone who is wanting to have their voice heard in this inquiry then the time is now. Please submit your questions and information directly to the Inquiry Panel.
